Parent Consultations

Thank you to all those parents who attended meetings this week. If you were unable to attend, please contact your child's teacher to arrange a convenient time.

Hudnall Park

Last week 48 pupils from Year 5 & 6 went to Hudnall Park, Berkamstead for a 3 day outdoor and adventurous residential trip.

Zip wire, mountain bikes, orienteering, obstacle course were just some of the fun challenging activities.

YR 5/6 comments:

"We went on a zip wire, mountain bikes, low roping and also orienteering, it was tricky but fun. We lit a camp fire and roasted marshmallows and drank hot chocolate".

"I personally found Hudnall Park fun and adventurous. We all got split into different groups every day and we had a bunch of exciting activities to do. I enjoyed spending time with my friends. I will never forget Hudnall Park".

Harvest Festival

Thank you everyone for the wonderful contributions for the Food Bank. It was fantastic to see so many parents and families at the church and a big thank you to Archdeacon Janet for leading the service.

I am delighted to say that there is a new vicar at St Marys Church. The Reverend Roger has been appointed, has visited our school and will be leading our Tuesday collective worships. I am also very grateful to Mrs Green who also leads our worship on some Tuesdays and will continue to do so. Both church leaders engage the children in learning about Gods teachings in a fun and thoughtful manner encouraging them to make good choices and make informed decisions for themselves.
